Awareness of Child Abuse and Neglect – Core

This course is suitable for everyone who works directly with children and young people, including frontline professionals. This course covers a variety of child protection and safeguarding children issues and is suitable for anyone who regularly comes into contact with children or who may be asked to contribute to the assessment of children in need. The course aims to inform about the various types of abuse and neglect that can happen to a child and then explain what you must do if you suspect a child is being abused or neglected. This course allows you to choose the legislation which applies to your country, should it be England, Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland.

A section of this course looks into multi-agency cooperation focusing specifically at Police,

Awareness of Child Abuse and Neglect – Foundation

Aimed at those who have direct contact with children. This is a slightly shorter version of the Awareness of Child Abuse and Neglect - Core, and it is designed to be suitable for all, not just child specialists

Safeguarding Everyone – Protecting Children, Young People and Adults at Risk:

Anyone who works within health and social care understands how important it is to always ensure the safety and security of those in their care. This course provides the knowledge required to recognise the signs of abuse and an understanding of how to respond appropriately to suspected or alleged abuse.

Basic Awareness of Child and Adult Sexual Exploitation:

Increases awareness of the main issues in the sexual exploitation of children and adults and raises awareness of the legislation and guidance that applies to vulnerable groups and how these policies can be applied in practice

Safeguarding Children and Young People from Abuse by Sexual Exploitation:

Increases awareness of the main issues in the sexual exploitation of children and young people and raises awareness of the legislation and guidance that applies to vulnerable groups and how these policies can be applied in practice.

Basic Awareness of Domestic Abuse including the impact on children:

Helps you to explain, describe and recognise the signs of domestic violence and neglect. It will also help you identify ways to support victims, identify the 'dos and don'ts', recognise when it is appropriate to assist, know where and when to get help and be aware of best practice.

Trafficking, Exploitation and Modern Slavery

This course is about understanding, combating and helping people who are being trafficked, exploited or used in modern slavery. It examines different types of exploitation, how individuals become victims to abuse and what actions professionals should take to recognise victims and help them

Understanding Pathways to Extremism and the Prevent Programme

This course is aimed at all professionals who work in sectors where they come into contact with people who may be vulnerable to radicalisation, whether they are adults, children or young people. The aim of the course is to give you an awareness of the radicalisation process so you can feel confident about being proactive in taking a multi-agency approach to early intervention and support.
